CLAIMS INCURRING FEES

The present European patent application comprised at the time of filing claims for which payment was due.

☐ Only part of the claims have been paid within the prescribed time limit. The present European search report has been drawn up for those claims for which no payment was due and for those claims for which claims fees have been paid, namely claim(s):

☐ No claims fees have been paid within the prescribed time limit. The present European search report has been drawn up for those claims for which no payment was due.

LACK OF UNITY OF INVENTION

The Search Division considers that the present European patent application does not comply with the requirements of unity of invention and relates to several inventions or groups of inventions, namely:

see sheet B

☐ All further search fees have been paid within the fixed time limit. The present European search report has been drawn up for all claims.

☐ As all searchable claims could be searched without effort justifying an additional fee, the Search Division did not invite payment of any additional fee.

☐ Only part of the further search fees have been paid within the fixed time limit. The present European search report has been drawn up for those parts of the European patent application which relate to the inventions in respect of which search fees have been paid, namely claims:

☐ None of the further search fees have been paid within the fixed time limit. The present European search report has been drawn up for those parts of the European patent application which relate to the invention first mentioned in the claims, namely claims:

☒ The present supplementary European search report has been drawn up for those parts of the European patent application which relate to the invention first mentioned in the claims (Rule 164 (1) EPC).

LACK OF UNITY OF INVENTION
SHEET B

Application Number
EP 04 70 7298

The Search Division considers that the present European patent application does not comply with the requirements of unity of invention and relates to several inventions or groups of inventions, namely:

1. claims: 1-28

an apparatus and a system in which packets are received that comply to dissimilar communication protocols;
---

2. claims: 29-31(completely); 33-36(partially)

an edge router and a system that obtains/stores switching information for switching a packet at each router apparatus positioned along a transfer path of the packet;
---

3. claims: 32(completely); 33-36(partially)

a core router and a system switching a received packet based on a switching information affixed to the packet and deleting this information;

The only combination of features common to all three groups of claims are generally known elements of a telecommunications network: switches, routers. These elements perform generally known functions of routing/switching packets.

Therefore the present set of claims is not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept and the requirement of unity of invention is not met.

Additionally claims 33 and 34 define systems having elements of both the second and the third groups of claims, therefore they belong to both the second and the third groups, along with the dependent claims 35 and 36.
